Communications upon matters of local or general interest solicited.
Communications designed to call attention to any matter of limited or individual interest will not be inserted unless paid for as an advertisement.

SOME PERTINENT QUESTIONS ANSWERED.

In another column appears a communication signed "Citizen." He asks some very pertinent questions and calls upon the editor of this paper, as a member of the Sonoma Valley Exhibit Committee, to explain matters which he no doubt thinks we are cognizant of. In regard to the disposition made of the Sonoma Valley Exhibit we will state that it has been turned over to Mr. Geo. H. Maxwell, together with the sum of $200, part of the proceeds received as premiums, to be used in removing the display from the Mechanics' Institute building to its present location under the Palace Hotel. This was the act of the committee, or correctly speaking, of a portion of the committee, as only four members were present at the meeting when the exhibit was disposed of. The committee numbers twenty members, and the small attendance on the occasion referred to was owing to the fact that the Secretary neglected, inadvertently we presume, to notify his fellow committeemen by postal card of such meeting, and this no doubt accounts for so many of the Committee being unable to explain the matters inquired into by our correspondent. "Citizen" speaks of a syndicate of real estate dealers. If by doing so he seeks to insinuate that the editor of this paper is in any manner, shape or form identified with any syndicate having for its object the capturing of the Sonoma Valley Exhibit for individual gain he is going altogether a little too far. In the first place we were not present at the meeting which turned over the exhibit to Mr. Maxwell, nor were we officially notified to be present at such a meeting, and did not know the exhibit had been turned over to any one until five days after the aforesaid meeting.

In regard to the premiums won by the Sonoma Valley Exhibit, amounting to some $1280, we believe the coin has not yet been turned over to the Committee by the Mechanics' Institute. As to "Citizen's" query "whether the exhibit is being perpetuated in the interest of a real estate syndicate or for the public at large?" we will state that undoubtedly it is being conducted in the interest of the latter, for surely the Committee, composed of the leading men of this valley, would not make use of public property for individual gain. Unfortunately there was not a free discussion by the Committee regarding the turning over of the exhibit to its present custodian, hence the suspicions of "Citizen," which we trust are unfounded.

EMANUEL JENSENS, a wine-grower from the department of Bordeaux, at present visiting this State for the purpose of informing himself regarding the California wine industry, has inspected Senator Stanford's vineyard at Vina, and expressed himself as delighted with California as a wine country. The Senator has commissioned Mr. Jenssens to bring as early as possible next year 100 skilled French laborers conversant with the work of vineyards and wineries, to each of whom is promised a monthly salary of $30, with an allowance of $12 for board.

JOHN H. WHEELER, Chief Executive Officer of the Viticultural Commission, has appointed an agent to make a collection of California and European wines as sold in the Eastern market, to be examined by local wine-growers as to their quality, and to be particularly examined and analyzed by the State Analyst. The analysis, it is supposed, will be interesting to Eastern wine-drinkers, and of value to California producers of pure wine.

NAPA has organized a Board of Trade.

The weather the past week has been delightful.

BRIDGES AND ROADS NEEDED.

SEVERAL petitions, numerously signed by the taxpayers of Sonoma Valley, will be presented to the Board of Supervisors next week. These petitions pray for the opening up of new roads and the construction of two bridges across Sonoma Creek, one near Agus Caliente and the other about one mile west of Sonoma. Two of the roads petitioned for lead up to the bridges mentioned above while the other runs through the lands of E. T. Sheppard, Col. Hooper and Mr. Lang. All these roads and bridges are public necessities and each and every one of the petitions ought to be granted by our Supervisors. Sonoma Township pays taxes on property assessed at $2,283,350, and if we except Santa Rosa, is the richest township in Sonoma County. But notwithstanding the thousands of dollars paid into the County Treasury annually in the way of taxes Sonoma Township gets very little of the money back in improvements. Her bridges are miserable, ramshackle affairs and we can say without fear of contradiction that we have the poorest bridges in the county. The people of Sonoma Valley feel that they are entitled to as much consideration at the hands of our Supervisors as other localities, but have been slow to press their claims. At last, however, they have woken up to the realization that they have been a little too backward in the past, hence the petitions which will be presented to the Supervisors for their consideration at their next meeting. When it is taken into consideration that Santa Rosa, Guerneville, Healdsburg and other sections of the county have had bridges constructed in the past three years at the expense of the county, costing in some instances as high as $25,000, it will be seen that these petitions from the tax-payers of Sonoma Township are, comparatively speaking, very modest affairs indeed, and surely will not fail of passage when put to a vote before the Board. If they do, a great injustice will have been done the people of this township.

ELECTIONS for state officers will take place next Tuesday in New York, Ohio, Pennsylvania, Iowa, Maryland and Massachusetts, and the result will be watched with great interest by both parties. Should the first-named go Democratic it will no doubt insure the renomination of Cleveland. This the Republicans do not desire, as he is the strongest man the Democrats could select in the forthcoming National contest. Should the Republicans carry Cleveland's own state it will materially lessen his chances for a renomination, and in consequence strenuous efforts will be made by the latter party to obtain a victory in the Empire State.

A FOOLHARDY errand, Antonio Infantes, was dashed to death in the presence of several thousand people at St. Louis, Mo., last Sunday. He had ascended some 500 feet when the balloon collapsed and he was hurled to the ground and mangled to death in sight of the horrified spectators.

FRANK A. SEE, aged twenty-six, single, went hunting Sunday in Capell Valley Napa County, and returned with a deer. While taking it from his shoulders his rifle was discharged, and the ball, entering the middle of his neck, killed him instantly.

HUNDREDS of Eastern people still continue to arrive in San Francisco on the Overland trains. Most of these are homeseekers in the land of sunshine and plenty.

A PLOT to blow up the Chicago jail where the Anarchists are confined is believed to have been discovered.

The Governor by proclamation has appointed Thursday, Nov. 24th next, as a day of thanksgiving and prayer.

Those who fail to attend the Band Concert will miss the greatest musical treat Sonoma has ever known.

The musical programme at the Band Concert will be the most complete ever offered to the people of this valley. Among the many interesting numbers will be selections by the Band, vocal solos, duets, and choruses, cornet solos, violin solos, trombone solos, cornet duets and quartets.

Donahue's Railroad Interests.

The Novato Branch of the San Francisco and North Pacific Railroad is being rapidly brought to a completion. The trestle work which was necessitated for some distance over the marshes contiguous to Petaluma creek, is finished, and the track laying is in progress. Many rumors recently in circulation have connected the San Francisco and North Pacific Railroad with the McNulta syndicate, taking the shape that Colonel Donahue intended at an early date extending his line to Napa with the intention of joining there the line of the Clear Lake Railroad. Colonel Donahue, in conversation with a Call reporter yesterday, admitted that the San Francisco and Clear Lake people had made overtures to him, but he had not yet, he said, decided what course to pursue in the matter. "From a point on the Sonoma Valley line to Napa," he said, "it is only a distance of eight miles, and I am strongly of the opinion that we could get more business out of Napa than some other people will get out of Santa Rosa. A line was now being built from Pacheco, on his main line, to Sears Point at the terminus of Sonoma line. Should he decide to build, he would have far the quickest line between the Napa Valley and this city."—Call.

COUNTY CULLINGS.

Thieves raided the Clark ranch near Santa Rosa, one night last week, and carried off fifty sacks of potatoes.

A barn on the farm of James Cooney, seven miles south of Santa Rosa, was burned to the ground last Saturday evening. Loss $1,000, no insurance.

J. Fowler of Guerneville was arrested in Santa Rosa, last Monday, charged with committing rape on a daughter of J. Ushmann of the former place.

The recent forest fires on the coast destroyed the timbers of the tunnel on the San Francisco and North Pacific Coast railroad, four miles from Occidental. It will be fully three weeks before the damage can be repaired.

A gentleman who last week visited the neighborhood of the fires in the mountains of northern Sonoma, informs the Santa Rosa Democrat that in one gulch he counted 13 dead deer which had been burned to death.

Coyotes are reported very troublesome in many sections of the county. A number have been killed in the vicinity of Sonoma the past few months, but they are more numerous along the coast. The Santa Rosa Republican says that six calves were devoured in one night by a band of the sneaking animals on the Button ranch.

R. R. Cogges, a sewing machine agent in Santa Rosa, says an Associated Press dispatch, left that city two weeks ago, telling W. Sanborn, proprietor of the livery stable where the former's horse was kept, that he was going away and would return in a few days. His long absence aroused the suspicions of the company and an agent was sent here to look into Count's accounts. An investigation proves him to be a defaulter. The exact amount is not yet ascertained. His whereabouts is not known.

"We Point with Pride" to the "Good name at home" won by Hood's Sarsaparilla. In Lowell, Mass., where it is prepared, there is more of Hood's Sarsaparilla sold than of all other medicines, and it has given the best of satisfaction since its introduction ten years ago. This could not be if the medicine did not possess merit. If you suffer from impure blood, try Hood's Sarsaparilla and realize its peculiar curative power.

A young lady in one of our prominent institutions of learning, who was a great favorite, not only among her classmates, but with all the faculty, was obliged to give up her studies and return home seriously ill. Chronic nervous sick-headache, accompanied by impaired digestion, by which the circulation and nutrition of the brain were impaired, rendered her very miserable. A physician was called, who apparently not understanding the nature of her ailment, failed to afford relief. A friend who had been similarly afflicted, and found immediate relief by using Fries's Hamburg Tea, recommended the same to her. She made trial of it and to her great joy found a decided improvement as the result. After a few days use of this popular remedy she was fully restored.

A LIBERAL GIFT: In our advertising columns will be found the most liberal offer in real estate ever yet submitted. Messrs. H. Newman & Co., the Real Estate Agents, of 411 Kearny street, San Francisco, offer to deed, free and unconditionally, to every one applying, personally or by letter, one lot, 25x100 in the town of Border City, in the famous County of Los Angeles. As they stand along with the deed to the lot, maps of the State and town, they so doubt expect the grantees will return to buy more lots, but there is nothing obligatory in this respect. Of course the purchaser pays for the deed, but the land is an absolutely free and unencumbered gift, and the offer will doubtless be largely taken advantage of. Border City is well located, on the proposed line of the A. and P. R. R., and is about forty miles from San Francisco, and is a beautiful place. Those who believe in the great future of this State, when again lots will be worth hundreds of dollars per acre, should at once avail themselves of this chance, by accepting the lot presented, and then, having ascertained all particulars from the information afforded, make right in and buy, at the very low price at which the lots are offered, as many more as their means will permit.

The case of M. Manfredina vs. Virginia Piffero, action brought for the collection of an account contracted by defendant's divorced husband, has been decided by Judge Pressley in favor of Mrs. Piffero.

Don't Let that cold of yours run on. You think it is a light thing. But it may run into catarrh, or into pneumonia or consumption. Catarrh is disgusting. Pneumonia is dangerous. Consumption is death itself. The breathing apparatus must be kept healthy and clear of all obstructions and offensive matter. Otherwise there is trouble ahead. All the diseases of these parts, head, nose, throat, bronchial tubes and lungs, can be delightfully and entirely cured by the use of Boechie's German Syrup. If you don't know this already, thousands and thousands of people can tell you. They have been cured by it, and know how it is themselves. Bottle only 75 cents. Ask any druggist.

The importance of purifying the blood cannot be overestimated, for without pure blood you cannot enjoy good health. At this season nearly every one needs a good medicine to purify, vitalize, and enrich the blood, and Hood's Sarsaparilla is worthy your confidence. It is peculiar in that it strengthens and builds up the system, creates an appetite, and tones the digestion, while it eradicates disease. Give it a trial. Hood's Sarsaparilla is sold by all druggists. Prepared by C. I. Hood & Co., Lowell, Mass.

On Thursday evening last the steamer James M. Donahue, on her up trip to Sonoma Landing, got out of the channel when near the landing and the tide being low she stuck in the mud and was delayed three-quarters of an hour.

The Congregational Church Fair, held on last Wednesday and Thursday evenings at Union Hall, was a success. There was a good attendance both evenings to listen to the excellent programmes arranged and managed by Mrs. Appleton, J. H. Madison and Jas. Morris.

Clay Literary Society will hold its regular meeting next Monday evening. As the society holds its meetings on the first and third Mondays of each month, there was no meeting last Monday evening owing to the fact that October contained five Mondays.

Duck shooting in the marshes on the south side of Sonoma Creek, near McGill's station, is all the rage now. The card of Sproul & Tving, real estate agents, appears in another column. This firm has recently established a branch of their San Francisco office in this place, under the management of Mr. Tving, who is well-known to the people of this valley as a live real estate agent, having conducted a real estate agency in Sonoma several years ago. The firm is a reliable one, and although in the same business as ourselves, we take pleasure in recommending Messrs. Sproul & Tving as reliable business men.

Runaway and Presence of Mind.

On Thursday morning last as Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Thomson of Agua Caliente were coming into town in a light buggy their horse became frightened at a passing ox team and ran away. Mr. Thomson held on to the lines and endeavored to stop the animal but was unable to do so. Reaching a point in the road opposite the farm of Mrs. J. L. Maxwell, one of the wheels struck a large rock and went all to pieces. As the buggy was going over Mr. Thomson seized his wife around the waist and made a jump, landing clear of the wrecked vehicle and both escaped injury. The horse then turned to the right and jumped a barbed wire fence, dragging the buggy after him and after clearing another wire fence came to a standstill. Strange to relate the animal was not in the least injured but the buggy was badly wrecked.

Kate Field and the Sonoma Valley Exhibit.

The world-wide famous lecturer, Kate Field, during her sojourn on this coast visited the recent Mechanics' Fair and was completely captivated by the exhibit made by Sonoma Valley. In a private letter to a friend in Boston, she writes that of the Premium Exhibit: "I've seen fresh fruit and dried, wines and brandy, grapes and hops, merino sheep and silkworms, and altogether I'm ready to exclaim, 'What a wonderful State!' If I had a ranch I should repose in peace, knowing that my fortune was a mere question of time. Eastern people will discover before long that the land about San Francisco is as valuable, if not more so, than that further south. The best wines come from counties adjoining 'Frisco.'"

The Boy Burglars.

A. Mandosa and D. Walsh were examined before Justice Brown on a charge of burglary Tuesday afternoon. Mandosa, as his name would indicate, is a Spaniard, and aged about 19 years. His companion, Walsh, is but 12 years old. The latter, when apprehended by the Marshal last week, was very much frightened, and detailed a full account of the Kronicke Park burglary. He told the same story in the examination yesterday. He said that Mandosa and himself had broken into the bar-room at the park and removed therefrom three demijohns of whisky; seven bottles of the same fluid, one box of soda-water, a shot gun, towel and bunch of keys. They were in the habit of going hunting, and took the booty to their camp in the hills. The liquor lasted them two months. Mandosa endeavored to prove an alibi. He claimed that he was never away from his father's house at night, and was at home and sleeping on the night of the burglary. The examination was continued until Thursday. Democrat.

Louis Bazoni Again.

A motion will be made before Justice Small to-day to amend the judgment in the case of the People vs. Louis Bazoni, convicted for assaulting his wife. One day last month defendant was arrested by Constable Sparks and taken to the Justice's Court. While the officer's attention was drawn away from his prisoner for a few seconds he took advantage of the opportunity and made his escape out of a rear door and has ever since eluded our officers. The motion to amend the judgment is an attempt on the part of defendant's attorney to have the sentence reduced, which it is claimed is excessive. Should the Judge grant the motion it is understood Bazoni will put in an appearance for re-sentence, otherwise he will continue to remain sequestered.

A Daring Burglary.

The residence of John Dunbar on Cherry street was entered by a burglar in a bold manner, between 8 and 9 o'clock Tuesday morning. The drawers of the bureau in the front room were opened, and a toy bank containing $5 and a jewel-box full of trinkets were taken therefrom. Mrs. Dunbar was in the rear of the house at the time. The robbery was discovered by Eddy, the son of the house, who passed through the room before going to school and discovered the opened drawers with their disordered contents. Mr. Dunbar and Marshal Lowrey were immediately summoned and a thorough investigation followed. No clue or evidence was discovered which would lead to the identification of the thief, and the affair is shrouded in mystery. Democrat.

Los Guillicos.

The work of building the town of Los Guillicos is progressing at a rate which will astonish the lethargic part of the community which doubted the sincerity of its builders, when they announced their intentions. The streets, as surveyed by P. R. Davis and graded by Jerry Farmer, are said to be constructed in a highly satisfactory manner and will soon become fine level driveways. Santa Rosa Republican.

The best of talent, both amateur and professional, has been engaged by the Sonoma Valley Band for their concert.

A Famous Trombone Soloist to Appear Before a Sonoma Audience. Prof. F. N. Inness, the world-renowned trombone soloist, who has played engagements in all the leading cities of the Atlantic States and Europe, in a letter to Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Boyes, volunteers to play a trombone solo on the occasion of the Sonoma Valley Band's concert in this place next Friday evening. Prof. Inness is not in the habit of volunteering his services on like occasions and this makes his act all the more graceful and the people of Sonoma and vicinity ought to show their appreciation of his kindness toward our home band by turning out en masse. During his professional travels in Europe Prof. Inness received $150 nightly for a single trombone solo, so great was his reputation as a remarkable musician. The opportunity to listen to his playing before a Sonoma audience next Friday evening in one which should not be missed, as it may not occur again in a life time. Let all show their appreciation of his musical genius and the generous spirit which prompted him to volunteer his valuable services on this occasion by being present and giving him a rousing reception.

Meeting of City Trustees.

The Board of Trustees of Sonoma City met in regular session, at the City Hall, in Sonoma, on Wednesday evening, Nov. 2nd.

Present—Trustees Lawrence, Manuel, McHarvey and Wegner. Trustee McHarvey presided.

The minutes of the previous regular and special meetings were read and approved.

The Clerk was directed to correct the error in the Marshal's account, and credit the Marshal with ten dollars.

The following bills were presented, audited by the proper committees and ordered paid: J. M. Cheney, labor, $1.25; G. W. Estes, labor, $3.00; B. P. Norris, labor, $12.55; U. P. Vallejo, salary, $23.35; J. McDonnell Jr., salary, etc., $80.00. The Marshal reported that he had notified the property-owners along the creek running from Berryessa street to clean the same, and they had promised to do so.

The account of the Marshal, dated October 5th, showing a balance due the city of $105.75, was then examined and found correct, whereupon the Marshal paid said amount to the City Treasurer.

No further business appearing the Board adjourned.

Glen Ellen Notes.

A social dance was held at Johnson's on Sonoma mountain last Friday evening, at which 30 couples enjoyed themselves hugely.

Owing to the large number of men employed on the Santa Rosa and Carquinez Railroad, Glen Ellen presents a lively appearance.

Deputy Sheriff Groshong was in town Saturday, kind 'o looking around.

Geo. Beatty has purchased the butcher business of C. H. Burger, at this place.

Hugh Maxwell, leader of the Sonoma Valley Band, was up last Friday pasting notices for a concert and ball to be given by the Band at Sonoma on the 11th inst.

Sunday trains now leave Glen Ellen at 3 P. M., thereby reaching San Francisco one and a-half-hours earlier.

The atmosphere still looks smoky but no fires are burning in this vicinity. If they were they surely would be seen by an Old Timer.

Boat Race.

A boat race took place on Sonoma Creek last Saturday between Capt. Jack Wilson's skiff and Otto Rufus' whitehall boat, the former being rigged with a leg-of-mutton sail and the latter with a gaff sail. The distance covered was 5 miles, the course being from the fruit landing at Embarcadero to the Sonoma Valley Railroad company's drawbridge. A light breeze was necessarily slow. Rufus, however, with aid of a white sail breeze succeeded in winning the race, coming in ahead of his competitor some fifteen minutes. Jack Wilson, being an old sailor, is disconsolate over his defeat by an amateur, and nothing will pacify him short of another contest. He, therefore, authorizes us to say that he will try conclusions with Mr. Rufus at any time he may select for any sum between $10 and $50.

The Citizens' Meeting.

In pursuance of a call of many citizens a meeting was held at Union Hall, last Saturday afternoon to discuss matters of general interest and to devise ways and means looking to the welfare and future prosperity of this city.

Robt. Poppe was called to the chair and D. D. Davisson was elected Secretary.

The propriety of building a double drive-way bridge across Sonoma Creek and opening up a road between the lands of P. D. F. Ewell and Perkins leading to said bridge, called forth considerable discussion and ended by the appointment of several committees. Another meeting will be held to-day at Union Hall at 2 P. M.

OUR EXHIBIT.

A "Citizen" Asks a Few Pertinent Questions. ED. INDEX-TRIBUNE. The question is frequently asked: What has been done with the far-famed Sonoma Exhibit—the Premium Exhibit of Old Sonoma Valley—to which no satisfactory answer can be had further than this: That it is being perpetuated somewhere in San Francisco at the expense of somebody, whom no one seems to exactly understand. Nor is it plain whether it is being perpetuated in the interest of the people of the valley at large or doing duty for a single individual or real estate syndicate. Also, I would like to inquire what has been done with the very handsome sum of money received by the Committee for premiums and awards? Mr. Editor, since you have been recognized from the beginning as one of the leading spirits of that Committee, and a public journalist, please step to the front and explain this somewhat mystified condition of things. CITIZEN.

Wretched, Indeed.

Are those whom a confirmed tendency to biliousness, subject to the various and changeful symptoms indicative of liver complaint? Headache, constipation, furred tongue, an unpleasant breath, a dull or sharp pain in the neighborhood of the affected organ, impurity of the blood, and loss of appetite, signalize as one of the most distressing as it is one of the most common, of maladies. There is, however, a simple, certain, and reliable remedy, which achieves results speedily, thoroughly and benignly. Besides relieving liver disorder, it invigorates the feeble, cures urinary and bladder complaints, and hastens the convalescence of those recovering from enfeebling disease. Moreover, it is the grand specific for fever and ague.

Sore Eyes.

The eyes are always in sympathy with the body, and afford an excellent index of its condition. When the eyes become weak, and the lids inflamed and sore, it is an evidence that the system has become disordered by Scrofula, for which Ayer's Sarsaparilla is the best known remedy.

Scrofula, which produced a painful inflammation in my eyes, caused me much suffering, and I was unable to see. By the advice of a physician I commenced taking Ayer's Sarsaparilla. After using this medicine a short time I was completely cured.

My eyes are now in a splendid condition, and I am as well and strong as ever. —Mrs. William Gage, Concord, N. H.

For a number of years I was troubled with a humor in my eyes, and was unable to obtain any relief until I commenced using Ayer's Sarsaparilla. This medicine has effected a complete cure, and I believe it to be the best of blood purifiers. —C. E. Upton, Nashua, N. H.

From childhood, and until with a few months I have been afflicted with Weak and Sore Eyes. I have used for some complaints with beneficial results, Ayer's Sarsaparilla, and now my eyes are great blood purifier. —Mrs. C. Phillips, Glover, Vt.

I suffered for a year with inflammation in my left eye. Three doctors formulated on the ball, depriving me of sight, and causing great pain. After trying many other remedies, to no purpose, I was finally induced to use Ayer's Sarsaparilla.

By Taking three bottles of this medicine I have been entirely cured. My sight has been restored, and there is no sign of inflammation, sore, or ulcer in my eye. —Ronald T. Bowen, Sugar Tree Ridge, Ohio.

My daughter, ten years old, was afflicted with Scrofulous Sore Eyes. During the last two years she never saw light of any kind. Physicians of the highest standing exerted their skill, but with no permanent success. On the recommendation of a friend I purchased a bottle of Ayer's Sarsaparilla, which my daughter commenced taking. Before she had used the third bottle her sight was restored. Her cure is complete. —W. E. Sutherland, Evangelist, Shelby City, Ky., & 17.

WHAT KILLS AMERICANS.

It is a fact which the law seems hardly able to check, and it has a strong fascination for both guides and amateurs. It goes on all summer, and as conditions of success are a dark night and absolute quiet, there is little fear of detection. Benson, after his return from one of these secret expeditions, gave me an enthusiastic description of his feelings. "There was a sense of mystery and adventure even in our creeping away from camp at dusk, hugging the west shore of the lake in the black shadow of the hills and pulling into the river, where we waited for complete darkness. Then we lighted the Jack, on a staff on the bow of the boat. I crouched behind it with my gun, and the guide unslipped the oars and took his paddle. I thought I knew that river by heart. I asked him to often take the fantastic and beautiful sights which broke upon me in the moving light made it seem like an enchanted stream. A patch of lilies would dart out of the darkness and just glister and vanish; the alders, as we swept by them, turned to silver. Sometimes the beam of light shot into an arch among the trees and opened for an instant a view of a fairy land. We crept forward our way through that narrow and crooked passage where the bushes brush you on both cheeks, and before the river broadened again I had lost the right of the direction, and almost forgotten what I came out for. I think that the miraculous silence was a great part of the charm. The guide never took his paddle from the water, sending us on by just a little turn of his wrist, and there was not so much as a ripple about the boat. It was the greatest night I ever had!"

"And the deer?"

"Oh, we didn't get any deer; but I didn't care for that. About midnight, down the rapids, we heard an old buck whistle and go crashing through the bushes, but we didn't see him, and he wasn't very near. The guide said: 'The fool, he's been shot at before!' and that was the first word spoken since we started down the river. We came home after that. It was the greatest night I ever had. I would not have missed it for anything."—Allredoncks Cor. New York Tribune.

Two Ways of Navigating the Nile.

There are two ways of navigating the Nile. The modern way is by a line of steamers owned by the Khedive. The "antique" method is supplied by the dahabeah. The dahabeah only provides that sense of excitement and discovery, which needs when journeying back into the centuries. But as things are done under the present dispensation, the traveler may, and usually does, have opportunity to try both methods of travel during one journey.

The wind is not always good to the dahabeah, and she is often glad to accept a tow at the start, the more lucky the fellow traveler. On these occasions there is a generous interchange of courtesies (so unusual on a marine voyage), and one may enjoy the privilege of pacing two decks on one and the same day. The bustle of the steamer becomes too exciting for one's half languid condition, there is usually a hearty offer made to share the quiet brought into the dahabeah. Only a cable's tow separates them, and an Arab crew is always ready with a small boat to undertake the work of the voyage between.

In making a choice between these two methods the traveler may feel assured that in the preparation for the journey and in the start the excellent does not suffer a plaster's worth. The difference, in fact, however, is this: The steamer passenger may calculate fairly the time of his return to Cairo, but the dahabeahist will escape the heart sickness which comes from hope deferred, if from the first he abandons all expectation of returning at any time, certain or uncertain. From the moment he is pushed away from the quay until he returns he is the vassal of the wind and must bend his proud spirit to its whim.

The dahabeah is conducted by a private frigate and crew. The two young men, the steamer is a public conveyance, and is much less yours.—Edward L. Wilson in Scribner.

English Love of Sport.

Hares are almost formed on purpose to be good sport, and make a jolly good dish, a pleasant addition to the countless round of mutton and beef, to which the ideal level of civilization attaches us. Counting the capital, the harrier first rate. Now every man who walks about the fields is more or less a sportsman, and the farmer having got the right of the gun he is not unlikely to become to some extent a game preserver. When they could not let it they wanted to destroy it, now they have got it they want to keep it. The old feeling coming up again—the land rests—letting itself, Spain you see—down with "endless," but let us have the game.

Look down the long list of hounds kept in England, not one of which could get run were it not for the good will of the farmers, and indeed of the laborers. Hunting is a minority of the medieval class, and this is the Nineteenth century of the socialist, yet every man of the field lives to hear the horn and the burst of the hounds. Never was shooting, for instance, carried to such perfection, perfect guns, made with scientific accuracy, plans of campaign among the pheasants set out with diagrams, as if there was going to be a battle of Dienheim in the woods. To be a successful sportsman nowadays you must be a well drilled farmer, never losing presence of mind, keeping your nerve under fire—flushes to the left of you, reports to the right, and you shoot, swelling from the second line—a hero amid the countless rattle of musketry and the "dun dun" breath of war.—The English Illustrated Magazine.

Civilizing Australian Aborigines.

The action of the government of New South Wales in offering 200,000 acres of land to any missionary society which will undertake to civilize the natives of that province, is a characteristic illustration of the tardy effect of the Anglo-Saxon conscience upon the policy of English speaking countries, in regard to dark skinned natives of territories colonized. When the Australian aborigines were numerous enough to be troublesome or in the way of new covers, they were shot, poisoned, allowed to die of smallpox and bad whisky, and generally treated much as the Indians were in many sections of the United States. Now, however, the natives are few in number and dwindling rapidly, and they excite something of the sentimentalism which we know so well in our Indian affairs, to say nothing of a desire to do some sort of justice to the "destroyed" in the home of its forefathers. The idea, probably is, though it may not be very definitely conceived, that each one of the tribes to be granted to the missionaries will atone for the murder of an aboriginal lord of the land, and that ten acres will square accounts for the burning of a native village.—Cleveland Leader.

Farmers desiring groceries and having the cash to pay for the same, can buy in a supply at Wey's Cash Grocery as cheap as if purchased in the city. Come and be convinced.

The alarming disease of this country is nervous debility and prostration. It goes under many names but it is essentially the same complaint. Hospitals and private institutions for nervous patients are crowded. The average of life in the United States is decreasing every year. Sudden deaths from nervous collapse among our business, professional and public men are so frequent as scarcely to excite remark. The majority of suicides, committed without apparent reason, or under so-called "depression of spirits," are really prompted by nervous prostration, which is a fruitful source of insanity and crime with all their grief and horror. These facts are startling. They threaten the very life of the nation. They assail the springs of its power and prosperity. They wreck manhood's strength and woman's usefulness and beauty.

Every one should know the causes. What are they? The answer is easy and terribly plain: Our vicious personal habits; our careless and lawless eating and drinking; the intense mental and physical strain arising from our mad race after money, position and influence; the fears and struggles of poverty; the use of narcotics and stimulants; our fashion of turning day into night and night into day; and, briefly, our desperate willingness to pay any price for an hour's pleasure or success. So we burn life's candle at both ends and fill the lunatic asylums and the graveyards.

The disease from which we suffer and die is, in plain English, Nervous Dyspepsia, as it is seated in the Nerves and in the organs of Digestion, Assimilation and Nutrition. Healthy digestion being impeded or destroyed, the whole body, nerves included, is literally starved; even when there is no emaciation to tell the sad story.

Nervous prostration sends out its warnings—headache in the morning; a persistent dull heaviness or aching at the base of the brain; wakefulness; loss of appetite and disgust with food; loss of mental energy and interest in ordinary duties and business; restlessness and anxiety without any assignable reason; eruptions; bad breath; foul mucous on the teeth; occasional giddiness; palpitation of the heart; sallowness of the skin; coated tongue and gradual failure of strength and ambition.

The remedy is a total abandonment of the habits and customs which cause the disease in each individual case, and the use of Shaker Extract of Roots (Seigel's Syrup) to cure the mischief already done. This great remedy, prepared by the Shaker Community of Mt. Lebanon, N. Y., is especially adapted to eradicate Nervous Dyspepsia. To do this it acts directly and gently but powerfully upon the disordered stomach, liver and kidneys, restoring their tone and vigor, promoting the secretion of bile, expelling waste matters from the system, and purifying the blood.

Upon the nervous system Shaker Extract (Seigel's Syrup) acts as a safe and wholesome anodyne without the slightest narcotic effect, and then leaves the nerves to regain their natural tone and strength through its wonderful influence upon the function of nutrition.

It is safe to say more nervous dyspepsias have been restored by it from the depths of misery to a fresh enjoyment of life and labor than by any or all other forms of treatment combined.
